City Council Upholds PG&E Sub-Station By One Vote Margin

The council Monday night passed an ordinance annexing the Abbey Homestead area, and in 3-2 split vote, went on record as favoring the erection of a PG&E substation on a portion of the land.

Councilmen Joseph Verducci and Edward Dennis opposed the substation, complaining that it would be located in an area already proposed for residential development.

It was only the second time in nearly a year that the council had disagreed on any issue in a formal meeting.

Approve Letter

The council placed itself in favor of the sub-station by approving a letter from the PG&E stating that the company agreed to installation of city facilities on the property, if it was stipulated that construction of the sub-station would be allowed.

Sanford Vickers, secretary of the planning commission, said, "It looks like the matter is cut and dried now."

As the situation stands, the PG&E must still submit application to the commission for a use permit.

Verducci claimed, "We may be approving something which might never happen," pointing out that the commission might not be in

THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

LOIS MATZEK, 427 Irvington street, is currently showing at the Orpheum theater.

And all because, in her capacity as commercial teller at the Daly City Bank of America, she was noticed by the wife of a vice-president of Universal International pictures.

Miss Matzek's role in the newsreel shorts currently being shown in this area and throughout the world is that of a model, and the article on show is ear rings.

Lois Matzek
...Profile For Rings

The executive's wife noticed Miss Matzek in the bank and then and there decided she'd fit in fine as one of the models for the short fashion films.

The newsreels were taken at the home of CAROLYN ROSENE, one of the founders of the metal arts guild of northern California.

The ear rings on parade are all products of the guild and are the latest in hand-made modernistic work. Many of the creations are "mobiles," or to tag them without about as accurate a description as possible, "They're really something," as Miss Matzek puts it.

A graduate of Our Lady of Perpetual Help grammar school and Mercy high school, the Daly City lass hopes to appear on film again in the future—but only on a part-time basis. Banking, it says here, is her first love.

ROBERT HUNTER, co-chairman for the C of C's Tuesday testimonial feed, had better not have any run-ins with the local law. Standing at the entrance of the dining hall at the center Tuesday, Hunter was about to contest the validity of dinner tickets held in the person of LIEUT. ROY BEECHER and POLICE CHIEF ROLAND PETROCCHI.

Bob had better hope the long arm of the law doesn't have an equally long memory.

Coming home to 232 Hillcrest avenue after 13 months on "tour" with the U. S. Marines, is HAROLD MOSMAN, son of MR. and MRS. JOHN A. MOSMAN, same address. The Mrs. M. (EVELYN)

Airman Tells Police Of Beating, Robbery

A 25-year-old air force medic on furlough was kidnapped in San Francisco, beaten and robbed here last week.

George D. Changaris told police he was parked in his car in San Francisco early Friday morning when a man wearing a marine corps trenchcoat walked up behind him and said, "This is a gun in your back. Get back in the car."

"I followed his orders and he ordered me to drive south on Mission street," Changaris said. "We arrived in Daly City and turned down Mateo avenue."

Changaris told police he was ordered by the kidnapper to stop in front of 163 Mateo avenue.

Then he struck Changaris on the back of the head twice, knocking him out.

The victim approached Officer Les Bastedo at 3:45 a.m. and told him of the incident.

Porch Light Drive For Cancer Funds To Be Held Tonight

Daly City's porch light campaign to gain funds for the fight against cancer will be held tonight (Friday) from 7 to 9 o'clock, chairman Ann Eason announced this week.

Asking generosity on the part of donors, Mrs. Eason pointed out that one in five Americans now living will develop cancer.

"The disease occurs among the rich and the poor, among executives and farmers, housewives and industrial workers; it is a threat we all face," she continued.

The chairman explained that dollars donated would go to pay for skilled physicians and hospital service for research and aid.

Cancer last year killed 215,000 American men, women and children in this country, she pointed out.

Three "Wetbacks" Picked Up Here

Police picked up three Mexican "wetbacks" here Sunday night and turned them over to immigration authorities.

The trio was stopped by police at 10 a.m. while travelling east on Alemany boulevard in a '39 model sedan. Officers said they noticed the vehicle "weaving."

Pete Markovich, chairman of the function, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, is shown presenting trophy to Wayne Lovelace and Larry Blanchard. They accepted the award on behalf of the Jefferson varsity's PAL basketball champions, who, along with outstanding golfers Art Linhares and Bob Silvestri, were feted at the dinner.

JUVENILES PICKED UP AFTER 3-MILE CHASE

A trio of 15-year-olds were picked up by Daly City police here Wednesday after a three-mile chase.

The youngsters stole a car in San Francisco and attempted to gas their vehicle here without paying.

They were arrested by police after they had received a full tank of gas at a Mission and School streets station and drove away. Police pursued them for three miles.

Ross Says Method Handling Revenue From Court Is Bad

City Clerk B. C. Ross charged at Monday night's council meeting that the system of handling revenue from the municipal court to the city is "very bad."

In reading the financial report for the month of March, Ross said, "I get the money and the city treasurer gets the report. Why don't they send the money to him, too?"

Ross contended that if the treasurer receives the report and relays it to the council, he should also receive the money.

At present, money accruing to the city from the court is kept on Ross' accounts.

Councilman Paul Green suggested that Ross also make the report.

"It's all a very foolish business," Ross concluded.

Daly City realized a total of $5204.05 in fines and vehicle code violation money from the newly established court.

CALLAN CHARGES SMITH NOT SERVING DISTRICT

Thomas J. Callan Sr. of Colma, supervisor, charged this week that Edwin Smith, city engineer, is not giving the North County Sanitation district proper attention because of confliction of other jobs.

Callan said Smith is engineer for the sanitation district, the city of Daly City and Doelger builders. "Who's responsible if a sewer is plugged? How do I know if he's working for our district or the city of Daly City?" Callan queried.

"I say it's a poor deal," he continued.

Callan's suggestion was that the district, of which he is the county representative, get an engineer of its own.

However, Anthony J. Gaggero, mayor of Daly City and a member of the local sanitation district, said Callan is "misinformed."

Gaggero claimed that Smith is not engineer for the district and that work performed by him for the district has been gratis. "We've only paid $125 out of the district's funds to Smith. And that was for surveying the sewage plant site," Gaggero pointed out.

"Robert Klassen and Harry Jenks handle the bulk of the district's engineering work," the mayor said.

Countering Callan's charge that Smith was engineer for various local land developers, Gaggero said, "Smith only inspects the work for the city. He is paid by the developers for the inspection, but is acting as a representative of the city."

Callan said, "I'm not questioning Smith's qualifications for the job. But how can he represent (the district) when he's getting paid by Daly City?"

TAXES DELINQUENT AFTER THIS MONDAY

Daly City residents should bear in mind that Monday, April 20, is the last day to make second installment payments on city taxes.

Those who fail to pay taxes due the city at that time will face a three per cent penalty on their total bill.

The city clerk's office will be open until 5 p.m. Monday.

ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR KIDS' HOBBY SHOW AT CENTER

Plans for a Daly City Hobby show, open to all children of this area, were announced yesterday by Mrs. William Hobbs, chairman of the event, sponsored by local Druid organizations.

Mrs. Hobbs said the hobby show will be held May 16 and 17 at the community center and will be open to all elementary and high school students.

All types of entires will be accepted, she said, with the exception of livestock.

All participants will bring their hobbies to the center on Saturday morning, May 16, where they will be on display through Sunday afternoon.

Entry blanks will be available at schools and local stores about May 1, the chairman stated.

The Hillcrest, Cypress and Grove Circle of Druids are sponsoring the show.

Jitney Owners Seek Meeting With Council

The council Monday night received a letter from Paul J. O'Leary, president of the San Francisco Jitney and Owners association, asking that his group be allowed to appear before the council to discuss possibility of jitney transportation being offered here and in adjoining areas.

The council set May 4 as the date to confer with the jitney owners.

Celebrities and dignitaries from the surrounding area will be present Sunday at the site of Holy Angels church in Colma when the dedication of the parish's modern school and remodeled church will be held.

His Excellency the Most Reverend John J. Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco, heads the list of clergy and religious of the bay area who will be in attendance at the ceremony, scheduled to begin at 2 p.m.

Modern Facilities

The recently completed school provides modern facilities for Catholic education under the guidance of the Sisters, while alterations just made to the church have doubled its seating capacity.

Holy Angels church, standing on land donated to Archbishop Alemany in 1867 by Peter Dunks of Colma, was erected in about 1868, and is one of the oldest churches in the state.

At this time the church was named St. Annes. The name of

EI PORTAL DRIVE IS CLOSED TO TRAFFIC

The closing of El Portal drive to Lake Merced boulevard was announced yesterday by an official of the Henry Doelger Co.

The spokesman said that the road will remain closed to traffic until property bordering it has been filled in and developed.

It will be impossible to maintain the road until a permanent street is constructed, the source explained.

In answer to numerous complaints of property owners in the area that sand and dirt was piling up on their residences, the company has planned to construct a board fence across the drive.

Colma Woman Is Injured In Wreck

A Colma woman was among three persons hurt Saturday night when a Greyhound bus and an auto collided here on Mission street near Flournoy.

Carol Catrinha, 18, of 855 Thornhill drive, Colma, was treated for cuts and bruises at Junipero Serra hospital, as were Marietta Smith, 19, of 732 Santa Margarita avenue, Millbrae, and Patricia Moses, 18, of 176 Arlene avenue, Sunnyvale, all passengers in the bus.

Police said the accident occurred when a vehicle driven by Barbara Sheehan, 118 Duval avenue, South San Francisco, collided with the bus, driven by Quentin M. Grant, 33, of Sharp Park. Both vehicles were south bound on Mission street. Miss Sheehan was cited by police for having no driver's license.

County Fathers Say Won't Give "Inch" To San Francisco

San Mateo county has informed San Francisco that they will not give "an inch" of this county and are steadfastly against any attempt of San Francisco to annex portions of Westlake and Broadmoor.

The San Francisco board met Monday and, by a 5-3 vote, called for a committee hearing on suggested legislation to amend the San Francisco-San Mateo consolidation act of 1929 and the state constitution to allow annexation of the property in Daly City and Broadmoor.

By an identical vote it decided to hold a get-together breadbreaking with the local supervisors to effect a conciliation, but adoption of the motion was blocked by Supervisor Marvin Lewis, who, in a parliamentary coup, succeeded in keeping the subject before the board for action at the next session.

Action in Sacramento on the question this week: The assembly committee on municipal and county government postponed for two weeks a hearing originally scheduled for this week on a bill introduced by San Francisco representatives designed to speed the annexation.

The Jefferson Union high school board of trustees Monday night ruled not to renew contracts of 11 of the school's teachers.

The action came as a result of a state requirement in effect at the institution for the first time this year.

Must Make Permanent

The ruling states that all schools having an average daily attendance of 850 over a period of three years, must classify teachers as permanent on their election for a fourth consecutive year.

At a teachers' meeting Wednesday afternoon at Jefferson, the list of those who were re-elected for another year was read by Stanford Hannah, district superintendent.

Those being ousted didn't know until that time of their status.

No statement as to the ability of those laid off was made. Hannah said, "We didn't feel like classifying them."

35 Re-Elected

A total of 35 teachers were re-elected by the board, 28 of them on a permanent basis.

Besides those just named on permanent status, two members of the faculty, John Mongan, vice principal, and Mrs. Marjorie Reandeau, instructor, are already under that classification.

The 11 teachers who were relieved of their positions will con-

Parents Invited To High School April 30

An opportunity for parents to attend a short day of school at Jefferson Union High school is being planned.

On Thursday evening, April 30, parents and others are invited to visit the local high school. After a short musical program, to be held in the auditorium, visitors will be given a copy of the daily class schedule and a map of the school showing the location of all rooms.

Parents will be given a copy of their children's schedules so they may follow through the same program. The periods will be twelve minutes long, with five minutes allowed between each period.

Visitors who have no students in the school are invited to visit any classes they choose.

In the twelve minute period each teacher will try to explain the purposes, content and methods of the class. Questions will be invited and it is hoped many parents and patrons will avail themselves of this opportunity to learn more about the work of the school.

Some of the departments will have exhibits. Others may have students at work showing the use of the machines or equipment.

This program is designed for adults and students will not be admitted unless they are involved in the program or are with their parents.

Local Driver Faces Drunk Driving Count

Alex Shalkowski, 38-year-old carpenter of 953 Brunswick street, was stopped by local police early yesterday (Thursday) morning and later charged with drunk driving.

Patrolman Jim Sunderland said he noticed Shalkowski driving in an "erratic" manner as he turned onto Junipero Serra boulevard from Belle street at about 4 a.m.

According to Sunderland, Shalkowski almost drove into a culvert as he approached the boulevard.

He was released yesterday on $150 cash bail. He is scheduled to enter his plea in Municipal court on Thursday.

Meeting Halls At Community Center Not Available Yet

Use of the community center for regular weekly or monthly meetings will not come about for some time, Recreation Director James Mason indicated this week.

Explaining his and the recreation commission's policy on the matter, Mason said the gymnasium is available for special group functions, pending approval of the recreation department.

However, he pointed out, the meeting halls are not yet completed. Final work on the halls will be done when the money is available, he said.

Other work to be done, he continued, was installation of lockers, kitchen facilities, tables and chairs.

CLAIMS MADE AGAINST DALY CITY FOR $50000

A total of $50,000 in claims against the city of Daly City were presented to the council at their Monday night meeting.

John and Nellie Dykman, of 196 Wellington avenue, asked $25,000 for deterioration of their property at that address.

They charge that the city of Daly City and the Bragato Paving company acted negligently, and were responsible for the cave-in last December 28 of a hillside on Brunswick street. The Dykmans earlier this year entered a claim for $75,000.

Another $25,000 claim was made against the city by Arthur and Marcella Lange, of 255 Irvington street. Mrs. Lange claims that she suffered severe injuries which incapacitated her for work, after tripping and falling on a defective sidewalk on the 6000 block of Mission street on January 5.

The council moved to deny both claims and referred them to the city attorney.

WELCH CHARGED WITH PASSING $300 IN CHECKS

Harry Welch, 55, was arraigned Wednesday morning in Municipal court on charges of passing some $300 worth of bad checks in Daly City.

Police picked up Welch Tuesday at 174 Brookdale avenue, after getting a tip that he was at that address.

A former teamster here, Welch has assertedly written some 12 bogus checks, amounting to about $300. Local police have been on his trail since November, when he allegedly cashed a bad check at the Globe tavern.

Inspector August Benassini said that all of Welch's checks were for between $5 and $15.

Welch is also wanted in San Francisco for numerous check counts, Benassini said.

Preliminary hearing is set for Tuesday at 10 a.m.

favor of the sub-station.

Final Decision

Councilman Paul Green's answer was that, "We've got the final say, not the planning commission."

"It seems to me we don't have any power," Vickers said, following the meeting.

However, Fred Bertetta, head of the commission, commented later that he thought the commission "would go along with the council."

In urging some sort of stand on the matter Monday, Green said, "We've been kicking the matter around for six months. Let's get some action."

One of Dennis' arguments against the electric plant was that it would eliminate a street. "They should build the plant away from the residential area," he said.

Attend Land Meet

Verducci, Dennis and Vickers all mentioned attending a meeting of the Urban Land institute last weekend. The local officials said that, although the institute members agreed industry in this county was a necessity, they were definitely opposed to placing this type of development in planned residential areas.

In answer to a comment by Green that industry was vitally needed here, Vickers arose from the audience to tell of a conversation he had with one of the members of the institute.

"He said they made the same mistake in Detroit 30 years ago," Vickers stated. "We know we need the power, but why should the PG&E tell us where to put it," he continued.

Other Action

In other action Monday, the council:

1. Laid over for consideration bids for supplying community center heating facilities. Only two bids were received: Scott Company, $27,400, and J. Elmer Riddle company, $30,572.

2. Postponed two weeks hearing on abatement of property proceedings on a building at 380 Westlake avenue.

3. Made permanent the status of patrolman Robert Crooker and Lieut. Roy Beecher.

2. Decided to purchase an additional 73-passenger transit bus this summer. Increased enrollment from the coastside, Bayshore and Brisbane, necessitated the purchase.

The Wrong Remedy

Some solution a trifle better than the installation of a stop signal is needed for the traffic problem confronting the Westlake area due to the vehicular flood on the Alemany extension.

The instance of serious injury to a child recently on the speed-way and the alarming number of accidents listed there in local police records are enough to prove the problem exists.

But, is the installation of a signal there the answer? We don't think so.

On a reasonably clear week-end, traffic pours in from Junipero Serra boulevard, approaching from the north and south, off Ocean Shore highway and Skyline boulevard.

This converging mass inevitably clots itself on the extension, with the result that traffic is backed up from arterial to arterial.

The addition of another stop, right in the center of this confusion, would only serve to tangle things more thoroughly.

And, with that result, the Westlake section—both residential and business, would suffer immeasureably.

We must concede that some mode of dampening the heavy-footers is needed on the thoroughfare. If an underpass weren't too costly, that might be the answer.

Whatever the solution, which is primarily one for traffic engineers, we, speaking if only from the layman's viewpoint, can easily see that a stop signal is going to be far from a cure-all.

Commissions Graveward Bound

Another step toward the grave for Daly City's commissions was taken Monday night when the council gave an informal promise of approval on a planning matter before the commission was even allowed to consider it.

The issue was the PG&E sub-station site, and the council went on record as favoring the site which, in itself, is cause for no concern.

But, in giving their assent to the station, they put themselves under what the city attorney described as a "moral obligation" to approve the PG&E's application.

This, in effect, makes a farce of the commission.

It means the commission might just as well return the PG&E's application without comment, since use of the land will be approved by the council, despite the planners' decision.

The purpose of local commissions is defeated with the philosophy that "It isn't a matter for the commission. The council has the last say."

Commissions are supposed to be made up of groups of men who, in civic service, give up their time to study important matters and recommend action to the council who, obviously, can't take time to go into the full aspects of all public business.

Naturally, a commission cannot be given omnipotent powers—but, at the same time, it can be said that their familiarity with problems under their jurisdiction better qualifies them to formulate action.

We have said before, and we repeat, let's throw Daly City's commissions in the waste-basket if all their time and labor foes for nothing but reproach from the city council.

A Last-Minute Fumble

The local Chamber of Commerce seems to have dropped the ball in their planning for the Spring Festival parade.

As was announced last week, the parade will not be held because highway officials won't allow traffic to be blocked on the El Camino, a state highway, for a period long enough to take care of a parade's passing.

This situation existed last year and, therefore, the parade wasn't held last year.

In making preparations for an event of this kind, we would think that such an important item as securing a thoroughfare for the praade would be No. 1 on the agenda.

Apparently it wasn't, since, with only a little more than a month remaining, announcement was made that the parade was kaput.

This was after extensive plans had ostensibly been made for holding the parade.

A year now remains to plan for next year's parade. We hope results will be a mite more material.

War With The Windmills

What a bunch of "hopefuls" the San Francisco city and county supervisors are to think that they'll gain headway in their annexation plot by meeting with this county's board.

Their only member who looked on the joint-meeting plan with any aura of reality was supervisor Edward Mancuso. However, he appended his acid-dipped decision with the statement that "We have enough votes in the legislature to get the annexation law on the books." Inasmuch as to say, let San Mateo county be damned.

The idea for the two counties to hold a joint meeting on the Westlake-Broadmoor annexation fiasco is downright silly and a testimony to the mental calibre of the bay city's supervisors.

This county's not going to concede one inch of property, no matter how unctuously or forcefully the Friscans orate.

About the only thing that would come out of such a meeting would be a lot of profanity and, we might add, a lot of laughs, the San Franciscans being a humorous lot recently.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Record welcomes any letter on any event of public, or private interest. These letters are published at no expense to the writer. There are just two requirements: the letters must be signed, and must be within the laws of libel. We hope readers will show enough interest in their city to occasionally "sound off;" for the purpose of this column is to give you, the reader, a chance to express an opinion.

Local Serviceman Transferred To Florida

Dear Sir:

It looks like you are going to change my mailing address again. I have just been transferred to Patrick AFB in Florida for reassignment to the Caribbean area.

Since my next base will be a brand new base we don't have any APO number yet. Until you hear from me about the new APO the best way will be to send the paper to my parent organization.

Say, thanks a million for asking people to write to servicemen. It really boosts morale an awful lot.

Thanking you,

St. Vincent de Paul Society Expresses Appreciation For Merchants' Donation

April 13, 1953

Dear Editor:

We desire to express our appreciation to Orin and Virginia Bender of the Town & Beach Tog Shoppe, Westlake, Daly City, for placing in our hands over 600 new pieces of wearing apparel for distribution to needy families in Daly City.

These good people could have realized a considerable sum for this merchandise through the medium of a sale, as the actual value of the goods exceeded $1700.00.

As a result of their generosity, we were able to completely outfit a large number of needy families with clothing of real quality.

Daly City is growing, and it is heartening to observe that the spirit of brotherly love and concern for our less fortunate neighbors is keeping pace with the growth.

Sincerely,
John E. Colthurst
Secretary, St. Vincent
de Paul Society,
Daly City, Calif.

Colma PTA Appreciates News Items

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Colma PTA, may we thank you for your generosity in publishing the many news items which we sent to your paper throughout the year.

May we thank the members of your news staff, particularly Mr. Monte Dayton, for the many courtesies extended to us during the year.

We trust that the Unit may continue to merit this cooperation and we hope that you will give to our successor, Mrs. Roy Foster, Colma's new publicity chairman, this same courteous attention.

Sincerly yours,
Mrs. John C. Wiesner,
Publicity Chairman
Colma PTA

Red Cross Thanks RECORD For Publicity

Dear Mr. Bradshaw,

This is just a personal note to add my thanks to that of Paul Bacon, fund campaign chairman, and other chapter officials, for the splendid cooperation of you and the staff of the Record during our drive.

It is always a pleasure to work with you, and I missed my usual tour of the county to say hello in person to all the editors. But this year there just wasn't time. From the volume of news items and pictures which appeared in February and March, I am sure every subscriber to the Record knew there was a Red Cross fund drive on.

Our district chairmen have reported that their solicitors have said their work was easier, due to the good publicity. You have been most generous with space and I want you to know how much I appreciate it.

Cordially,
Mrs. Charles Grigg,
Director, Public Information

MY MAD WORLD

by Leonore Brewer

In full flight from the tenebrous fingers of the approaching deadline, I sought shelter where I could find not only comfort but also inspiration. And where else but in the world of opera can one wander surrounded by shadowy figures, many of whom have more reality than the casual passerby. The opera house was dark, so I fled on to Boccie Ball, where the spirits of Verdi and Puccini sit relaxed, their feet on the table, and sip another kind of spirits.

Ever since the night a week or so ago when Arthur Peters answered an S.O.S. from the Pacific Opera company and sang a noteworthy Canio on about thirty minutes' notice, Leoncavallo has been at the top of the hit parade at Boccie Ball.. For my money Peters is a Verdi man, and if you doubt me, put in a request to hear him sing the Miserere from Trovatore, assisted by Sherry Stevens as Leonora.

This was one of the nights at Boccie Ball when Antonio Meloni was guest baritone. Perhaps he is not as young as once he was, as who is at 76, but his La ci darem la mano from Don Giovanni would indicate that baritones must go on forever. We hope that he is one baritone who will.

A chance glimpse of Mr. Kurt Adler, engaged in his endless search for talent for our own San Francisco Opera, made the evening not too different from one spent at the opera house. Even the same noisy people were in the audience. It is difficult to know how the public is ever going to learn to keep its big mouth shut when someone is singing, particularly since the voice of another baritone, deservedly nameless, could be heard all during the piano solo that evening. If one artist cannot respect another, I don't know how a casual audience will ever learn.

Soothed by Verdi and company, mellow and at peace with the world (except the noisy members of the world) we drifted homeward, our column clutched tightly to our bosom. On the way, we stopped to remove from the middle of the road all that was mortal of a fine, large yellow cat. Some human being, hurrying toward his own eternity, had pushed a fellow creature precipitately into his. The cat seemed untouched by the tragedy and appeared to be asleep. It was a time when some words should be spoken, and we searched our memory for something appropriate. Across many a long year, we heard a voice say:

"—The doctor came each day and said
That death was but a scientific fact."

They seemed inadequate, but they were all we could think of, so they had to do.

DALY CITY-COLMA AREA WILL HOLD BLOOD DRIVE

"Blood to save the life of a wounded man . . . blood to prevent polio paralysis in a child, two miracles from one pint of human blood!

"Every donor in the Daly City-Colma area will have an opportunity to perform his own private miracle when the Red Cross Bloodmobile visits this city on Tuesday, April 28."

These were the words of Dr. J. C. Karsant, Red Cross blood recruitment chairman for Daly City day. According to the doctor and his co-chairman, Mel Battye, the mobile unit will be stationed at Eagles Hall, 3348 San Jose avenue, between 3:30 and 6:30 p.m.

San Bruno Holds Record

To date, San Bruno holds the county record for the most blood donated in one day, with 278 pints. "The Red Cross Bloodmobile last visited Daly City a year ago," Dr. Karsant said. "Here is our opportunity to show the rest of the county what the Daly City area can do. Let's all get out and 'give a pint to save a life.' If we can get enough donors signed up, we have the promise of Red Cross and Blood Bank officials that the hours for donors to visit the unit will be extended."

Dr. Karsant pointed out that a certain amount of whole blood is flown to Korea several times a week, to be administered to our wounded men, but that for front-line emergency use and for cases of shock, a product of blood called serum albumin is used. And from the same pint of blood which produces this serum, a product called gamma globulin may also be obtained.

Polio Serum

This GG is the serum found to be effective in preventing paralysis in polio cases. Its effectiveness lasts for from one to five weeks after it has been administered. The new polio vaccine which has been much discussed, will not be ready for use this summer, therefore it is vital to have available as much gamma globulin as possible.

Following is the list of Red Cross donor instructions. You may donate IF:

You have not eaten anything but fruit juice and black coffee for four hours before donating.

You are between the ages of 18 and 60 years.

Written Consent

If male between 18 and 21 years, married or single, must have written permit from one parent.

If female between 18 and 21 years, married — no permit required.

If female between 18 and 21 years, unmarried — permit required.

Your weight corresponds to the Metropolitan Life Insurance height-weight standard.

You have no medical history of tuberculosis, ulcers, heart disease, jaundice, rheumatic fever, diabetes, malaria (unless no recurrence within last 5 years).

You are not pregnant or 12 months have elapsed since pregnancy.

You have not given blood within the last 3 months.

If you have had a cold, you must wait 3 weeks; if other illness, you must wait 6 weeks,; if a major operation, you must wait 1 year.

Emergency Service Offered In County On 24-Hour Basis

In keeping with their pledge of availability of a doctor at any time of day or night, the doctor-members of the San Mateo county medical society wish to bring to the attention of residents of San Mateo county, an emergency call service that has been in operation for several years.

"This service is in operation 24 hours a day, every day of the year, and will produce medical help as quickly as possible upon call," said Dr. Harry F. Smith, chairman of the society's public relations committee.

"If you need a doctor," he said, "or merely want information about one, you should call or visit our society headquarters at 235 Third avenue, San Mateo, DI, 4-7641. At this office, you can obtain accurate information about society members as well as routine referrals for future use."

Dr. Smith went on to say that a fine system of medical telephone answering services has been available in San Mateo county for a number of years and that they are working in cooperation with the medical society to insure residents of the county of continuous medical care.

HOW CAN I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I prevent odors in the refrigerator?

A. If a piece of charcoal, about two inches square is placed in the corner of the refrigerator, melons, cucumbers, bananas, etc., may be placed together with other foods without making the foods distasteful. This will keep the refrigerator odorless.

Q. How can I make a dry shampoo?

A. Mix two ounces of cornmeal with one ounce of powdered orris root. Sprinkle this powder in the hair and then brush thoroughly.

Q. How can I chop nuts quickly?

A. Instead of chopping nuts for cakes or cookies, try placing them in a cloth and running the rolling pin over them.

Q. How can I heat the oven more quickly?

A. After lighting the gas burners of the oven, wait for about two minutes and then open the oven door for a second. This permits the moist air to escape and the oven consequently will heat far more quickly after the ventilation.

Q. How can I check nosebleed?

A. Try the following remedy: Sit erect with arms raised and the head thrown slightly back. Apply ice cold wet cloths to the back of the neck and forehead. Do not blow the nose.

Q. How can I preserve patent leather shoes?

A. A cloth dipped in the white of an egg is good for preserving patent leather shoes. Finish the job by polishing with a soft cloth or chamois.

Q. How can I keep paint from blistering?

A. Be sure never to apply new paint over blistered paint. Always scrape or burn off the surface until a smooth finish is acquired. Otherwise, the new paint will blister just where the old did.

Q. How can I give linens a good color?

A. A coat of blue enamel paint on the shelves of the linen closet will not only make the closet more attractive, but will keep the linens a good color.

Q. How can I get rid of roaches?

A. Dampness, bits of food, and trash of all kinds are the things that attract roaches. Eliminate these attractions, and there will be no roaches.

Q. How can I clean marble most effectively?

A. Cover it with a paste made by mixing two tablespoons of soda, one tablespoon each of salt and powdered pumice, and some cold water. When the spread paste has dried, rub it off with a cloth and wash the marble well with soap and water. Repeat this process if the stains are difficult to remove.

New Adult Books

One of the newer books which I thoroughly enjoyed reading is "The Silent World" by Captain J. Y. Cousteau. This fascinating non-fiction book tells the story of undersea discovery by the first men to swim at record depths with the freedom of fish. Capt. Cousteau by means of his own invention, the aqualung, has revolutionized the means of human access to the undersea world. The author tells what a diver sees and feels when he descends into the "silent world" of the sea. As Rachel Carson, author of the best seller, "The Sea Around Us," describes it, "This book cuts a refreshing path through the murky literature of diving that has accumulated over the years, much of it steeped in legend and superstition and hair raising battles between divers and undersea 'monsters.' Heaven knows, there is excitement enough for anyone in this book, but Cousteau remains throughout the factual and clear-headed reporter of what he actually experienced."

One of the chapter I particularly enjoyed reading tells of the drowned museums to be found in the waters of the Mediterranean. Cousteau speaks of this body of water as the mother of civilization, and as the sea girt with the oldest cultures. He gives a graphic description of the salvage operations involved in bringing to the surface the museum treasures, many of which can be traced back to Athenian culture. Many other fascinating chapters await the readers of this book. Don't miss it! Other new adult non-fiction books include:

Sandburg, Carl — "Always the Young Strangers."—In his autobiography, this famous poet tells the story of his life in the small town in which he was born, of his family, and of his friends and neighbors. He unconsciously reveals how America was ingrained in him. It is more than just Sandburg's story. Rather it is a personal witness account of a changing scene in a changing country.

Balsan, Consuelo—"The Glitter and the Gold." — Written by the former Duchess of Marlborough, this is a fascinating autobiography as well as an authorotative, vivid and significant picture of life during the Edwardian era.

Marshall, Bruce — "The White Rabbit." — This outstanding piece of characterization tells the true story of the career of an R.A.F. wing commander, Yeo Thomas, the "White Rabbit," a veteran of many dangerous missions behind German lines to organize the French resistance. A thrilling narrative of escapes and manhunts as well as an inspiring monument to those men who live with fear, despair and threat of death so that their world could be free.

Eyster, Warren — "Far From the Customary Skies." — A novel of men on a U. S. destroyer. This book has been described in the Publisher's Weekly as "an alarm at night—as vivid as a dream—as real as the murderous sea."

NEW FICTION BOOKS (Annotations quoted in part from publisher's book jackets).

Park, Ruth — "The Witch's Thorn." — This novel takes place in Te Kano, New Zealand. Atrenous and beautiful writing about a place most people know nothing about.

Rawlings, Marjorie — "The Sojourner" — Story of a good man and of the influences of his steady, quiet strength upon the members of his immediate family and of what these in turn — characters less strong and less stable than himself—do to him. Set in one of the central Atlantic states during the period from 1860 up to the second World War.

Marshall, Edison — "Caravan to Xanadu." — A novel of Marco Polo. Setting is 13th century Mediterranean Europe. A stirring tale filled with real human beings. The author, through the magic of his pen transports the reader to those reckless lavish days, to share the personal adventures of Marco Polo and his caravan as they journey perilously to the fabulous lands of Kublai Khan.

Steen, Marguerite — "The Swan." — Here Miss Steen tells a story full of suspense. The plot revolves around a stormy romance set in pastoral 19th century England.

Dowdey, Cilfford — "The Proud Retreat" — A novel of the lost Confederate treasure.

Brady, Leo — "Signs and Wonders." — A novel of plot and action leading to an inevitable climax of conflicting truths and attitudes.

Ellison, Ralph — "The Invisible Man" — A profound and uncompromising interpretation of the Negro's anamalous position in American society. (Winner of the Nation Fiction Book Award for 1953.)

Bradbury, Ray — "The Golden Apples of the Sun." — 22 of Bradbury's tales of the extraordinary, the haunting and the beautiful.

Prokosch, Frederic — "Nine Days To Mukalla." — The story of four westerners — 2 men and 2 women — wrecked on an island near Arabia. The 4 wayfarers must cross the sea and desert to get back to "civilization."

Seager, Allan — "Amos Berry." — Story of a successful business executive who is driven to a cold-blooded, carefully concealed act of violence. This book explores what it was in Berry's life and environment that compelled him to retreat from the 20th century.

There are many more new books to talk about, but due to the limitations of time and space, they will be discussed and annotated in the next Library News column.

Note: The best sellers of the week as listed in the latest issue of Publishers' Weekly magazine are: Desiree, The Silver Chalice, East of Eden, The Golden Admiral, Annapurna, The Power of Positive Thinking, The Silent World, and the Holy Bible, Revised Standard Version Nelson. All of these books are available at the Daly City public library.

"Forced" To Kill

Mrs. Hildegarde Garni Pelton, the 32-year-old German war bride who shot and killed her South San Francisco husband in the "kiss of death" murder in Niles, told authorities last week: "I shot him because he forced me to. I didn't mean to. I must have been crazy with love and hate."

She also told Alameda county sheriff's authorities that she had wanted to kill herself after the shooting in a murder-suicide plan but that the "gun didn't work." It was empty.

Mills Estate Sold

The world renowned Mills estate of San Mateo county has been sold.

It was revealed last week that all of the capital stock of the Mills Estate Incorporated Land company has been acquired by the Calview Realty company of Los Angeles, headed by Paul W. Trousdale, builder of more than 10,000 homes in Southern California.

Unfounded rumor placed the price at about $3000 an acre. This checked with an estimate made through a formula setting the assessed valuation at 25 per cent of the actual value. This would make the estate worth approximately $3,268,864.

Those familiar with the land said that it contained some waste and tideland parcels which would have the effect of varying costs at different locations.

The purchasers acquired all 22,500 shares of stock in the company, previously owned by the five members of the Mills family.

works in the city clerk's headquarters.

MARTHA ERCOLINI, wife of ALFRED, 143 Wyandotte avenue, would appreciate a word or visit from Daly City friends.

Martha, who has been in San Francisco hospital since January, after a special vertebrae operation, has a long infirm stint to do yet. Besides her husband, she has two children, ARTHUR and FRED, anxiously awaiting her return home.

The ward is No. 32 for those who'd like to pass along a word or friendly gesture to her. Visitors are welcome.

Monday's council audience, a rarity in that it exceeded ten persons, was in for a surprise during the opening of the local political machinery.

Due to an oversight, or an overlook, the long, compendious literature had not been read for quite some time.

So the citizens sat for nearly a half hour, while B. C. ROSS, city clerk, re-dramatized the council's activities back through March 9 — a total of four meetings. Therefore, those attending this coming Monday are promised a dose of only one week's political history.

CAPT. WALTER R. LEAHY, 89 Fairlawn avenue, was among 10 Korean conflict heroes honored this week at ceremonies in the San Francisco Presidio.

He was awarded the army commendation ribbon with metal pendant for meritorius service from Nov. 1, 1951, to May 13, 1952, with the 92nd and 97th military police battalions.

MADAME VICTORINE LOMBARD, long-time proprietor of the French Cleaning and dyeing establishment, has decided she deserves a rest.

The amiable lady, a native of France, was born VICTORINE LE CARPENTIER.

She came to this country in 1909, has been going strong in business and social circles ever since. Now, it's adieu to the business world for her.

Fisherman's Luck

A fisherman in New Bedford, Mass., ate a $100 meal that consisted of one fish he caught. It was a 16-inch yellow perch. When a sportsmen's magazine heard about the catch, the editor suggested that, if registered, the perch qualified the fisherman for a $100 prize. But, by that time, the fisherman had eaten the fish!

Blue Ribbon Glads Easy To Grow; Are Adaptable For Area

By Shirl Mollette
Daly City Garden Club

In an effort to give something different to break the usual monotony I intend to try presenting one easy to grow flower suitable to present planting in our own area.

This is how you can grow Blue Ribbon Gladiolus. The gladiolus is really mis-called a bulb. Because of this many people try to handle it as they would other true bulbs such as the daffodil. The gladiolus isn't a ground stem and is really a corm.

Bud Eyes

Under the husks are six or more bud eyes. The corm we plant is used to produce the leaves and flowering spike. The leaves build a new corm above the one we plant, with many small corms around its base. Because of this fact gladiolus bulbs (as they are mis-called) should be dug up every fall and replanted after the old bulb and roots have been removed and destroyed.

Thrips began to make a definite problem to gladiolus in 1938. Previous to this time it wasn't necessary to spray for them and neither were we conscious of fungus and virus diseases that are present in the soil of today.

Before proceeding further there are two questions. First, do you buy gladiolus corms to plant around your home with other flowering plants to add to the general effect of the complete planting? Second, do you buy gladiolus corms to produce beautiful spikes of flowers that will cause everyone to stop and look at them in wonder?

Will Get Blooms

If your answer is yes to the first question it is easy for me to tell you that you will get some blooms if thrips are not too abundant but you will have just the common run of gladiolus, nothing outstanding and in a year or two, you will have to buy new glads, as only a few of the most hardy will survive.

If you say "yes" to my second question how I wish I could tell you to do so in a few words. Even now there are new improved methods found to improve the growing of prize gladiolus. February is the best month for planting here in our area but later planting will bring good results with later bloom.

Just before planting dip your corm for fifteen minutes in one ounce of D.D.T. powder to 2½ gallons of water, add three tablesponos of Dreft to the dip solution to make same stick to the glads. Stir the solution well before the gladiolus are put into it and keep the hands out of the solution because it is powerful poison. Use a five gallon container and a wire screen basket to hold the glads. The small corms or bulblets should be dipped for thirty minutes.

Plant While Wet

Plant the glads while they are wet. The dip protects them from fungus and virus diseases that are in the soil and also stimulate the germination of the newly planted gladiolus. They should be planted in full sun in trenches six inches deep and in a sandy loam soil. If your soil is heavy use Gypsum in the bottom of your trench, cover it with soil and cover. Plant the large glads about six inches in rows about two feet apart. Walk on the rows to firm the soil around the glads.

Up In 3-4 Weeks

In about three or four weeks they should be coming up through the surface of the soil. When they are six to eight inches tall spray generously with 50% water soluable D.D.T. Be sure the D.D.T. is fresh and make the solution strong. Two round tablespoons of powder to one gallon of water and again add one tablespoon of Dreft so the spray will adhere to the leaves.

Irrigate between the rows, never let the gladiolus become dry after they begin to form their buds or spikes. When you irrigate give them a thorough soaking, cultivate lightly and, try and form a light dust mulch if possible. Never let the soil bake hard between the rows for if it does the roots cannot receive the air they need.

Dress With Fertilizer

After the fourth or fifth leaf has formed you can side dress your gladiolus with any good fertilizer, but always irrigate after fertilizing. Do not put too much on at a time or you will burn them. It is not advisable to plant gladiolus in the same location year after year because the soil gets infected with virus and fungus diseases from the old decayed bulbs.

Primarily the gladiolus is a "cut flower." Cut the spikes when one bloom is open leaving the first five leaves to build the new bulbs or corms which will form at the top of the old glad that was first planted. Give the plant at least two good irrigations after the flower has been cut, then let the soil dry out. It isn't necessary that the top be all dry and brown before you dig the glads. If some of the small corms formed around the new main bulb or corn are brown or grey they are ready to be dug. It is really better out of the warm dry soil than in it for now is the time the old bulb begins to rot away.

Cut Off Tops

After digging cut off the tops close to the gladiolus then place the bulbs in a tray or box not over three inches deep so they can dry out. Never let the sun shine on them as newly dug bulbs burn easily. About three weeks later the old mother bud together with roots and small corns should be dusted with 5 per cent D.D.T. Dust your new crop of bulbs and they are ready to be stored for the winter.

Store them in a cool dry place that has a good circulation of air.

During the storage period inspect for possible spoilage. I find storing them in a loose net onion sack from the garage ceiling adequate. Leave on the dry husks as they retain the moisture and prevent too much shrinkage.

Small Bumps Appear

Along in January you will find small bumps around the scar where the new bulb was attached to the old one. This indicates the bulb is breaking its dormancy or awakening from the necessary resting period and is now ready to be planted.

If these instructions are followed carefully I know no reason why any one cannot enjoy bringing into bloom prize winning spikes of our beautiful gladiolus.

Jeffs Dump Burlingame

Locals Come From Behind To Win, 6 to 5; Put 2-0 Record On Block In Today's Game

By GEORGE MILLER

The Jefferson varsity had to come from behind last Tuesday to beat the Burlingame Panthers, 6-5, at the losers field and claim their second straight PAL victory.

It was the first loss for the Burlingame nine.

Although the contest was a free scoring affair, the Indians played just about their worst game of the current season.

The undefeated Jefferson varsity will go against Capuchino today at 3:15 p.m. on the Mustangs diamond.

While the Indians have two straight PAL wins on their record, the Caps have dropped one contest to South San Francisco, while winning out over San Mateo, 5 to 4, in extra innings. The Jeffs have beaten the Mateans and Burlingame.

Also on tap for today at 3 p.m. on the local oval is a dual track meet between the Jeffs and South San Francisco.

Starting pitcher Don Delbon only allowed four hits, while striking out two and walking an equal number before rangy Joe Lewkowitz relieved him in the fifth frame. Delbon was lambasted for three runs in his fourth frame.

The Indians broke into the scoring column first in the second inning when they scored four runs on singles by Delbon, Vic Irons, Rich Cryer, Leo Villar, a triple by Joe Earnshaw and a walk to George Pedroni.

Burlingame bounded back with two runs in their half of the second and then pushed across three more in the fateful fourth when the Indians bobbled four times.

Going into the first of the sixth session the Indians were trailing by one run when Don Delbon singled and Joe Earnshaw walked. Both players brilliantly pulled a double steal, putting runners on second and third, with booming John Madden at bat.

Madden, who had won the Jeffs first contest for them against San Mateo with a double-decker home run, smashed the first pitch into centerfield, scoring Delbon and Earnshaw.

With Lewkowitz chucking the Indians held the panthers to a single hit and went on to win by the one-run margin.

Next week the Indians will journey to Half Moon Bay and South San Francisco and will try to keep their winning streak intact.

Lowell Creighton or Delbon will probably hurl against Half Moon Bay while Lewkowitz is slated to start against the South City men.

HILLTOPPERS ARE IN WITH ONLY ONE WEEK LEFT

With only Tuesday night's play remaining, Hilltop Cab appears a cinch to cop the Daly City-Colma bowling league, with 55 wins, 32 losses.

The Hilltop crew took three straight games in this week's competition, nullifying the Daly City-Colma Lions' chances of overtaking them. The Lions also swept three games, and are now in second with 53 wins, 34 losses.

The Lions have an outside chance to claim the crown, but if they win three and Hilltop drops at least two next week.

Hilltop Cab rolled high team series and game with scores of 2766 and 939, respectively.

Dominic Lenzini captured individual honors for the evening, hitting a 222 game and 601 series.

After next week's league climax, a sweepstakes will be held the following Tuesday, with prizes and money to be awarded to league members and teams.

TWO-RUN HOMER GIVES INDIANS LEAGUE WIN

Big John Madden, Jefferson high catcher, lambasted a two-run homer on his birthday last Friday to lead the Indians to a 2-0 shut-out over San Mateo high school.

Joe Lewkowitz turned in a sterling performance on the mound, allowing only four hits. He pitched no-hit, no-run ball for the last five innings.

The tall right-hander loaded the bases in both of the first two innings on two singles and an error in each frame, but bore down in the clutch to escape disaster. He walked three and struck out four during the contest.

Madden knocked out his round-tripper in the second inning to give the Jeffs their big two.

Merced Beavers In Front In Second Inning Of Contest

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS SELL $2362 TICKETS

The "Lake Merced Beavers," this area's team of Boy Scout ticket salesmen for the 1953 Scout-O-Rama, were way ahead of the game in the second inning of the city-wide Scout-O-Rama "slugfest" last week.

The "slugfest," a contest built around a baseball theme to see which of the seven geographic districts of the San Francisco Scout Council can sell the most tickets to the Scout-O-Rama, will last until the day the show opens, May 1, at the Cow Palace.

Each district has taken the name of a prominent west coast baseball team. Prizes go to the top Scout ticket salesman, and commissions to the Scout units.

Under the leadership of Albert M. Rosenberg, 125 Windsor drive, ticket sales manager for the Lake Merced district, the "Beavers" sold a grand total of $2362 worth of tickets during the first two weeks of the five-week campaign. This amounts to 56.9 per cent of their sales quota for the entire "game."

The Scout-O-Rama show is an action-packed, all-boy extravaganza illustrating the many phases of Scouting activities. Chairman is Howard Carver, general superintendent of the Emporium. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50c for children.

DALY CITY SUDS TOP BOYS CLUB

The Daly City Suds copped their second straight win over the San Pablo Boys Club Saturday, shutting out the opponents 5 to 0.

Donald Ricci proved the power at the plate for the Suds, banging a double and a single, scoring a pair of runs.

The Suds' center-fielder, Richard Leal, squelched a Boys Club rally in the end of the seventh with a spectacular catch.

Broadmoor Pack 84 Split Double Bill

Broadmoor's Cub Pack 84 baseball teams split their double-header last Saturday. The A team won over Pack 43 by a 3 to 1 score. The B team lost to Pack 152 by a score of 22 to 11. The A team now leads its league with 4 wins and no losses. The B team is second to Pack 152 with 4 wins and 1 loss.

In the A team game, Bobby Godwin pitched all seven innings and made 3 hits in 4 turns at bat. Dixie Howell's triple in the fifth inning was the first run of the game. In the 7th, with the score tied at 1 all, Pack 84 made two more runs, and a desparate Pack 43 team played hard to even it up in the last half.

The next A team game will be tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 a.m. at Aptos Junior high against Pack 36; the next B team game against Pack 108 at Jefferson high the same time and date.

Varsity Spikemen Take 4-Way Meet

Jefferson high's varsity track machine rolled into high gear last week, with the Indians wiping up three Peninsula Athletic league opponents on the Sequoia high oval.

Al Schenone led the Jeffs with wins in the 220 and 880, while he also ran on the winning relay team.

The Indian's fleetfoot conquered the 220 in 23.3 and the 820 in 2:05.3.

The Jefferson aggregation rang up 60½ points to Sequoia's 47½, Menlo-Atherton's 28 and Carlmont's five.

The Indian 30s ran third, scoring 31 points, being topped by Sequoia, 36, and Menlo, 56, as did the local 20s, who scored 17 5/6 markers.

REC LEAGUE ENDS IN 3 TEAM TIE

Hoyt's Water Heaters threw the Adult Basketball league into a three-way tie Thursday night by upsetting the highly favored Pastime club, 46 to 44.

The first quarter end saw the teams deadlocked at nine all.

In the second period big Joe Gregg sunk two hook shots, Lucca hit a long short and former All-City star Frank Garre scored on a drive in and two free throws, to give the Pastimers a 19-16 edge at half-time.

The Hoytmen came alive in the third period as Dick Milkovich and Sears found the range from outside to push their team to the front by one point.

Milkovich added a final insurance point for Hoyts as he was fouled during the melee in the final seconds.

Hoyt's win threw the second half of the league into a three-way tie, necessitating a play-off to decide the championship.

Tied for first, along with Hoyts, are Pastime club and the 12-Mile House, all with 3-1 records.

Ralph's Cleaners wound up last with no wins, four losses.

News From The Parks

MARCHBANKS PARK

The Daly City schools baseball league got underway last Saturday at Marchbanks Park. The league has brought several good teams down to Marchbanks this week to practice for Saturday's games. The enthusiasm displayed by the youngsters indicates a very successful baseball season. Dan Rasmussen, Gary Martinelli, Billy Magee, Bill Long and Dick Nunes look as if they are slated for stardom.

Interest in the league has grown tremendously since the Rec. Dept. announced that they would enter a team in the San Mateo county league. Team members for the summer league will be chosen from the school league on the basis of attendance, sportsmanship and ability. All boys who will not have reached their 15th birthday before Sept. 1st are urged to contact the directors at Marchbanks Park for further information.

Last summer the Marchbanks directors selected an outstanding boy and girl to be "Marchbanks Boy and Girl of the Week." The contest became so popular with the playground kids that they have asked to have it again this year.

The selection of the winning candidates is based on attendance at the playground, participation in the activities and cooperation with the directors. Each week the winning boy and girl will be named in THE RECORD.

This week's winner is Ronald Bloom, a 14-year-old Jefferson high freshman. Ron is an ardent baseball enthusiast and can be found working out daily on the Marchbanks diamond. Ron is a friendly youngster and is well liked by his playmates. Ron is never without a pleasant smile and a kind word for anyone he happens to meet. Marchbanks congratulates Ron Bloom as this week's "Boy of the Week."

This week, instead of just one "Girl of the Week," Marchbanks has chosen two. These girls are the Lewis sisters, Kathleen and Marianne. Both attend school at Perpetual Help, where Kathy is in the 2nd grade and Marianne is in the kindergarten. These sisters are regular participants in the various activities which are offered at the playground. They are quite talented, knowing the words and music of many popular tunes. Both Kathleen and Marianne dream of becoming housewives someday. The Lewis sisters reside on Miriam street with an older brother. Marchbanks is proud to have such pleasant girls chosen to represent the park.

Seen grouped about the director, eagerly listening to stories were the Gotelli brothers, Vic and Leo, and their sister, Carol, Bobby and Art Rasmussen were also there. These same children plus many others also enjoyed a vigorous game of kickball, and later, a game of keep-away.

EDGEWOOD PARK

Edgewood had two children that won prize eggs in the Easter Egg Hunt on April 3rd. They were Ronny Sears and Janet Pope. Janet won a ukelele and Ronny received a rubber beach ball.

LINCOLN PLAYGROUND

Lincoln Playground was also well represented in the recent Easter Egg Hunt. Gary Ciolino was one of the lucky prize winners. Others seen at the hunt were Marsha Noka, Alan Anthony and Raymond Kenny.

Ping Pong tournaments have been the recent highlight events at Lincoln Playground. First round winners include Billy Whalen of Perpetual Help and Pat Lena of Colma school.

The Daly City playgrounds offer a wide variety of games and activities for youngsters of all ages. Visit the playgrounds and meet your directors. They will see to it that you will enjoy your stay.

Death In Auto Crash

Mrs. Betty Ann Queen, 28-year-old mother of an infant daughter, was killed in a week-end head-on auto crash on Bayshore highway and Ninth avenue.

Mrs. Queen, who lived at 1226 12th avenue, San Francisco, died instantly as her head was shoved through the windshield. Her husband, Calvin F. Queen, 27, San Francisco garage man for the Gray Lines, and driver of the car, suffered severe facial lacerations and a bruised chest.

The couple's four-year-old daughter was staying with grandparents in San Francisco at the time of the mishap.

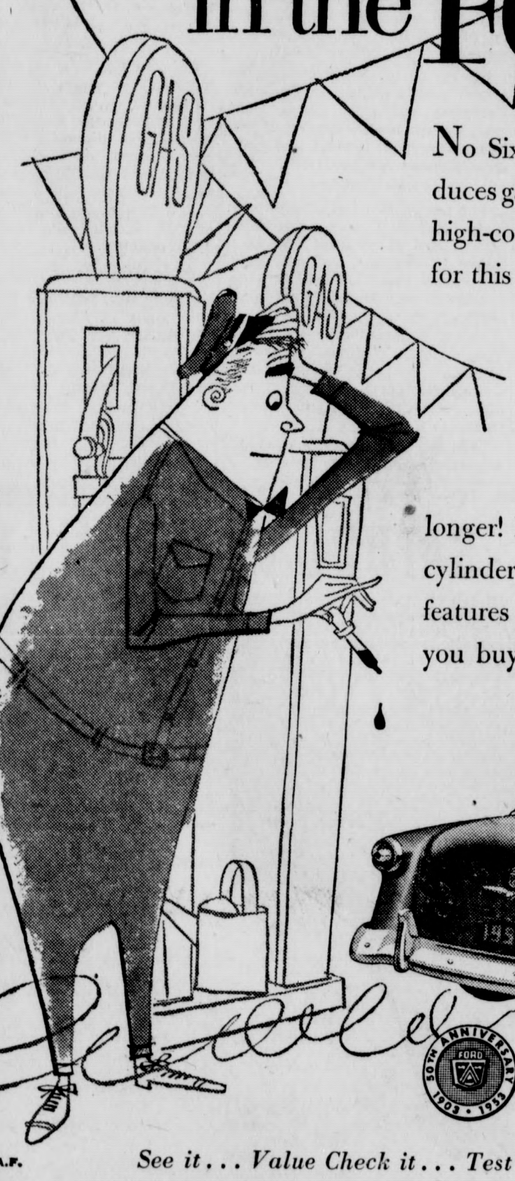
Why gas dollars go farther in the FORD SIX



No Six-cylinder engine in any car at any price reduces gas-wasting engine friction so effectively as Ford's high-compression Mileage Maker Six! The main reason for this is that the pistons travel a shorter distance for every mile you travel. This means that less of the gas you buy goes to overcome piston friction (the major cause of engine friction). It also means that there is less engine wear . . . and so your Ford will be worth more longer! But remember, this most modern of all Six-cylinder engines is just one of 41 "Worth More" features that make the '53 Ford worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Here it is Friday again and time for another visit with "your neighbors and mine." The holidays are over and the children are all back in school, so now once again we have time to take a deep breath. Nevertheless, there is a lot still happening in this town of ours.

First of all, the mothers of the students of Woodrow Wilson school were very pleased to hear that this week their children were to start attending school on a full time schedule. This is something that has been long awaited. It just goes to show one and all that time cures all things—even double sessions. Rome was not built in a day—either can the schools be that are to accommodate our ever increasing younger generation. Congratulations and thanks to all who had a part in making this possible.

The ladies of the Eagle's auxiliary, 1848, celebrated their fifth birthday Tuesday of last week. The ladies went to the Chukker for dinner and had a grand time from what I hear. Seems like there is nothing that can be more fun than when the ladies desert the kitchen for an evening out. Happy birthday to the Eagle's auxiliary.

MR. HENRY MARKGRAF of Theta avenue celebrated his birthday on Friday of last week. An enjoyable evening was spent with his family and friends who all wished him "Many Happy Returns of the Day." Happy Birthday "BRO" from all of your neighbors and mine.

Home on vacation last week was ADOLPH ANDERSON, Andy is an alumnus of OLPH school and is presently in his last year at St. Joseph's Colelge in Mt. View. All his many friends were glad to see Andy and are looking forward to summer when he will be home again. After the summer vacation, Andy will enter St. Patrick's Seminary to continue on with his studies.

Servicemen

Here is more news of "our boys" and their comings and goings: A 2/c TOBY LARSON, also an OLPH and Jefferson alumnus, was heard from this week. Toby is in the U. S. Air Force and is presently stationed on Okinawa. He writes that there is no place like "the old home town" and he hopes to be back in it soon.

PVT. JACK ZUGAR, the son of MR. and MRS. ALBERT ZUGAR of Vista Grande avenue, has finished his basic training at Camp Roberts and is now at Fort Lawton, Washington. Jack is in an anti-aircraft artillary unit and reports that the training there is much more interesting than basic. How true! Good luck and best wishes, Jack, from all your friends at home.

Good news was heard in the home of the ROBERT FAGANS of Santa Barbara avenue last week. Bob's brother, PVT. JERRY FAGAN, is on his way home from Fort Bliss, Texas, on a well earned furlough. Jerry will be welcomed home by all his family and friends at a party to be held in the home of his mother, Mrs. Robert Fagan. Happy landings, Jerry, and a good time on your furlough.

Another serviceman in a far off place was heard from this past week. MR. and MRS. SYL CRUZ of Mission street had word from their son, A 3/c SYL CRUZ JR. who is with the U. S. Air Forces in Korea. Syl is the brother of PAUL CRUZ, who is known by all who attend Jefferson High. Hello Syl, from all your neighbors and mine. Hope to see you home in the near future.

Events of Interest

There was company at the home of MR. and MRS. HORACE FELLOWS of Los Banos avenue last Sunday. Their son, CHARLES KENNETH FELLOWS, formerly of "our town," and his wife and two children came down from Sacramento to see the family. Kenneth is an alumnus of Jefferson High and the University of California, and was in the U. S. Army for three years with a good part of it overseas duty. He is presently employed in the engineering department of the state of California. Welcome home, Kenneth, if even just for the day.

As usual we have the newest citizens arriving weekly: MR. and MRS. PAUL DOYLE of San Diego avenue welcomed a new baby into their home last week. The young lady, who weighed 6 lbs. 7 ozs., was born on March 30th and has been named SHEILA JEAN. Sheila will have lots of fun growing up as there is an older sister, Deborah Ann, to play with.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES H. KEMPE of Fairway drive are the happy parents of another little girl. MIRIAM JO, who tipped the scales at 6 lbs. 7 ozs., joins her two sisters—Karen and Anne to make the Kempe household a happy one.

A very proud and happy family brought their new baby home this week. MR. and MRS. JOSEPH DENTONE are the proud parents of a little girl. The little one, who weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz., has been named DORIS and is their first child. Much happiness is wished this and all the families with their new babies.

News and Views

MRS. CHRISTINE MICHELSEN had a very good time for herself Thursday of last week. She and her grandson, KEITH, went downtown to see Peter Pan. Seems that Keith was taking Grandma to the show. He was very much the little gentleman as he paid the fare and rang the bell. Wonder which of them had the most fun at the show, Neighbors?

MICHAEL NOLAN, the son of the EDWARD NOLANS, of Shakespeare street, returned home from the hospital last week. Seems that Mike had been playing in a new house that was being built near his home and fell. He broke his wrist and was very lucky, if one can be called lucky in an affair like this, not to have fractured his skull. New houses can be so much fun to play in but, as can be seen, they can be dangerous playgrounds too. All the neighbors wish Mike a speedy recovery and hope to see him around again soon.

An orchid to the lady who drives the No. 3 school bus. She is one of the most careful of any and all the drivers that have been here since the institution of school bus transportation. She is also courteous and considerate of her passengers. One important service that she renders our children is to drive them across the heavily traveled Knowles avenue intersection. She stops and lets them off at the corner of Los Banos and Santa Barbara avenue. Thanks—from the mothers of all her passengers.

There seems to be a lot of excitement among the young fry this week. They have been voting on the future May Queen and her attendants. There is nothing quite so exciting as to be in the May Day celebration. When one is young, as the song goes — "these are the golden years."

A former well known resident of Daly City, ROSALYN ADAMS, the daughter of the SAMUEL ROSENBERGS, was married recently to Mr. Walter Joseph Fraser. The wedding took place at Temple Sherith Israel and was a double ring ceremony. Rose, as she is well known in Daly City, attended Jefferson High and was for many years known as MISS ROSE, a teacher of stage dancing to all the young fry of "our town."

The ladies auxiliary of Co. No. 1, fire department, went to dinner Thursday of last week at the Normandie restaurant in San Francisco. After dinner the ladies visited the International Settlement where a good time was had by all.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM BRUSH of Niantic avenue attended a cocktail party on Thursday of last week. The party was held at the Officer's Club at the Oakland Naval Supply center and an enjoyable time was had by all those who were fortunate enough to attend.

MR. and MRS. SORENSON and family of San Diego avenue spent the Easter holidays visiting Mrs. Sorenson's family in Oregon. They returned to "our town" on Friday of last week. Welcome home, folks, from all the neighbors.

Well Neighbors: Another week's news is completed. Hope you found something of interest to you concerning your neighbors and mine. Remember the phone is PL. 5-6482 and all you have to do is call up and I'll be glad to hear from you. Until next week then, 'Bye now.

Bayshore Officers Installed At Meet

Installation of officers of the Bayshore PTA took place April 8, in the Bayshore school auditorium.

Mrs. G. J. Serix, 17th district parliamentarian, installed the new officers, using an orchestra theme.

A fashion show to acquaint the members with the new officers and chairman for 1953 and 1954 was part of the program. Those taking part were: Mrs. L. F. Ottinger, president; Mrs. D. Caloiaro, vice president; Miss D. Fitzgerald, honorary vice president; Mrs. J. Reilley, treasurer; Mrs. M. Counts, recording secretary; Mrs. W. Leibert, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. Datzman, financial secretary; Mrs. R. Willis, auditor; Mrs. P. Butler, historian; Mrs. G. Robertson, parliamentarian; Mrs. J. Van Horn, founders day; Mrs. W. Cotton, hospitality; Mrs. L. Malloy, room mothers; Mrs. W. Oliver, membership; Mrs. T. Barbara, movies; Mrs. E. Hanschman, parent education; Mrs. J. Pleskach, publicity; Mrs. S. Filarski, sunshine; and Mrs. B. A. Painchaud, custodian.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. J. Pleskach and Mrs. E. Hanschman.

THE HIGHWAY SHOW-OFF

As time goes by the highway show-off seems to become ever more daring and less intelligent until at last his anti-social practices bring him to a violent end. The show-offs we have with us always, points out the National Automobile Club, and to safety-minded people this is indeed a cause for regret.

WHEN CARS GET AGED

That difference in acceleration when cars have seen considerable service without mechanical attention is owing to a cause that the car owner forgets; the spark plugs. The thousands of miles of functioning under high temperatures results in burned electrodes. The gap becomes widened, according to the National Automobile Club, and the plug loses its usefulness.

NORTH COUNTY SCOUT DIRECTOR IS APPOINTED

Margaret Dadey of Des Moines Named To Leadership Post By Scout Council

The North San Mateo County Girl Scout council has announced the recent appointment of Margaret Dadey as its new executive director.

Miss Dadey is a midwesterner, coming from Des Moines, Iowa.

She has had a wealth of Girl Scout experience and extensive training in various fields. She received her B.S. degree from North Dakota State college, her master's degree from Columbia university, and she did graduate work at Denver and Drake universities.

Margaret Dadey
. . . Scout Leader

Was In Des Moines

For the past four years, she has been the executive director of the Des Moines Association of Girl Scouts, and prior to that, she served in the same capacity with the Jefferson City Girl Scouts. Miss Dadey has also served as district director of the Camp Fire Girls. She has worked actively with girls on the troop level, having been a leader in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Miss Dadey has had a variety of experiences in camping, having acted as director, counselor, and coordinator of five different camps over a period of years.

The following professional organizations claim Miss Dadey as a current member: American Camping association, Adult Education association of U.S.A., American Association of Group Work, National Association of Girl Scouts, and the Iowa Recreation Workshop.

The new executive director replaces Mrs. Helen Gould who has served in this capacity for the past six years.

Many Changes

During this time many changes in organization and growth have occured. From three separate councils, has developed a federation of four—Millbrae, Daly City-Colma, San Bruno, and South San Francisco. During this time, the number of troops has increased from 35 to 145. From a single desk in the San Bruno chamber of commerce office, the council has expanded until it now occupies an office of its own in San Bruno, and now employs two field directors in addition to the executive director.

Six day camps and an established camp in the Santa Cruz mountains will be operated this summer by the council.

This growth and development has been due in large part to the efficient management and inspiration of Mrs. Gould, the retiring director.
